Dear Dr.

This is to confirm the earlier conversation you had with Ed Proctor concerning the establishment of a Military Economics Advisory Panel with you serving as chairman. I would like the Panel to advise me and the other members of the US Intelligence Board on questions concerning our analysis and reporting of defense spending in Communist countries. Your professional standing and personal contributions to many aspects of Soviet economics assures me that you are the right man to direct this consultative effort.

Ed Proctor will get in touch with you again to work out the details for the Panel's first meeting.

I would appreciate a brief reply affirming your availability for this important activity.

Sincerely,

Richard Helms
Director
